

Questions for Conversations

10.05.25

When have you in the past or what is going on in your life right now that causes you to relate to the Valley of Eschol?

Why do we struggle to trust God even though there is evidence of his faithfulness everywhere?

What do you need to apply from today's message? Where do you need . . .

Repentance from rebellion? Where are you not listening to God's word to you?

Cry out for God's deliverance from you enslavement to fear?

Know God's light in the darkness of lies you have believed and spread?

God to help you trust?

God to remind you that he is ALWAYS with you?

How can you do your math better?

What specific steps can we take to help others practice good math?

Share and Prayer

Questions for those reading the Thirsty book.

1. Which of the 5 days impacted you the most and why?
2. On pages 18,19 which of the first love questions concerns you the most?
3. From day 4 are you presently experiencing any hardness of heart?
4. Are there any specific areas God is asking you to surrender to him now?