

Questions for Conversations

102625

- Listening Intently and Regularly, as well as Remembering
 - How is the listening going?
 - How frequently is listening your first move?
 - If God was trying to allure you, would you hear his voice?
 - How much do you desire to hear from him?
 - How forgetful are you?
 - What can you do to help with that?
- Mutual Accountability
 - What do you think about the fact that Israel was said to be unfaithful because of one person's sin?
 - How should we be living our lives if this is how God sees things?
- Do The Work
 - Consecration (giving ourselves away)
 - How have you been giving yourself away to God recently?
 - Know Your Desires and Their Power
 - What are you loving more than God?
 - What have you valued that has no real ultimate value?
 - What things are keeping you from God?
 - What things are you hiding in your tent?
- Let God Deal with Your Troubles
 - How hard is it for you to trust God with your troubles?
 - How hard is it to wait for God to deal with them?

Share and Prayer

Questions for Those Going Through “Thirsty”

1. Pick any question from the end of each day (pages 92, 96, 100, 104, 108, 112)

Here are a few I found thought provoking that might be helpful:

1. Did any of the pride/humility examples on pages 90/91 strike a nerve and if so why?
2. in the middle of p 94 she says in order to experience revival we must ask ourselves these 4 questions. How are your answers to these questions?
3. How are your graveclothes (questions from thirsty for Freedom p. 104)?
4. How can you become more aware of God's presence in your daily life?