What questions do you have about this week's message?

Have you ever experienced (felt) the hand of God on your life?

Have you ever experienced the complete destruction of your plans? Explain.

Is there anything God cannot do?

Is there any situation beyond God's ability to change?

Is there ever a person (people) that God gives up on?

To whom are you to be God's object lesson this week?

What has God been doing in/with/for you that is supposed to inspire you in your "preaching" this week?

Why do we seem at times to be content to be good-looking skeletons?

What will it take for you to know that He is the Lord?
